

The image shows a vertical rectangular template with a rounded top. A dashed red line forms a rectangular border within the template, indicating the area where content should be placed. The text is positioned in the lower half of the template.

results, fill this entire file with gray line represents the area will be visible on the final p

IMPORTANT:

Do not delete this template before you appear on your final